

It is wrong to let Sinclair
Broadcasting force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election.

These are public
airways, not cable
channels, and should serve the public interest, not
partisan tactics.

If an anti-Kerry
show is shown, a
anti-Bush show
should be shown
either before, or right after, it.
Fair is fair, and the FCC needs to stop Sinclair from partisan pandering
to influence voter
behavior.
